New beginning, new season

by Phila Cole, JMHCC activities coordinator

As September starts, we are off to a new season and beginnings. I would like to invite everyone to stop in and say hello. I am eager to meet families and the community. The residents are adjusting great to having a new activities coordinator. I have enjoyed my new position and we experience new things every day.

We have had a great time getting to know one another. Meeting the residents and hearing their stories is one of the best parts of my position. And I look forward to meeting all of you.

Residents had to teach me how to play Farkle. What a fun game, no matter of the age. We had horse races, lots of bingo games, baking cookies and fellowship out the patio.

We are having pet visit day at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 7. If any family members or anyone in the community would like to bring their pet, please contact me at 584-2792, ext 272. Each pet will need to have an updated vaccine record on file at JMHCC. This can be given to me.

Holidays are around the corner. Please watch for the calendar, as we will be having lots of fun and events for the holidays.

Love, Phila Cole

PHOTOS, TOP TO BOTTOM: We love visits from our furry friends! The colorful bird-houses residents made and painted are now hanging at Lake Tschida. With summer winding down, we enjoyed some time on the patio.
